"Unto Those Who Sin"

A photo-play with a punch and moral lesson for all girls. Kindly note the following quotations:

"That the wages of sin are death is proven by the life story of Nadia, who, lured from the straight and narrow way to bright lights, ease and the love of purple and fine linen, finally reaps the tares and thistles of a mis-spent life."

"The story of Nadia is a tale that is sordid and yet fascinating; it is a life sermon that is too often unheeded, and yet we can never blind our eyes to its significance."

"As ye sow, so shall ye reap, and yet the lure of wealth continues to be irresistible to many working girls."

Aged Mexican Couple Suspected of Crime Are Run Down By posse

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) COLUMBUS, New Mexico, July 5.—The military authorities here, have been unofficially informed that a posse led by the brothers of the murdered man, have caught the slayers of William Parker and his five-month-old bride, on the border several weeks ago.

The report says that the posse, after following several cold trails and fruitless clues, succeeded in running down the murderers, who have turned out to be an old Mexican couple who had formerly worked for the Parkers but had been discharged.

IN WAR ARENA*BRITISH REPORT SLOW BUT SURE PROGRESS

LONDON, Eng., July 5.—In a statement issued last night from the war office the British public was told not to expect sensational gains, but to be prepared for a steady, methodical advance. The statement, however, described the character of the fighting, and stated that the British gains have been most satisfactory.

It added that 14,000 Teutonic prisoners have been taken since the launching of this offensive on the Somme. In addition the British have taken 12 heavy guns and eight field guns, besides a large number of machine guns and other booty.

In the French sector of the Somme front the Allies have been meeting with more success than further north. The French have straightened out their line by the capture of three additional towns, Estrees, Bailleux and Bellefleur.

In this fighting, declared the official communique issued at Paris last night, the French not only succeeded in straightening out their line, but they took 500 unwounded German prisoners, besides a quantity of munitions, bomb throwers, trench guns, and machine guns.

At Thiaumont, where the Crown Prince has been attacking for some time, the German thrusts succeeded in ousting the defenders from the advanced trenches, after six separate efforts had failed.

SLAVS CROSS CARPATHIANS; SAVARIAN LINES CUT

LONDON, Eng., July 5.—Russian cavalry patrols have crossed the Carpathian passes, having broken through the thin screen of Austrian cavalry sent out to intercept them. This information was contained in a wireless despatch from Bucharest last night.

Petrograd last night officially announced that in the region of Baranovichi the Slave forces have broken through the first lines of the Bavarian troops under the command of Prince Leopold of Bavaria, in two sectors, and have captured several thousand prisoners, including a number of officers. Some reports give the total of prisoners taken on this front at 27 officers and 2,700 men.

In the district north of Kolomei, where the German and Austrian armies are under the command of Gen. von Bothmer, the fighting has been terrific, according to despatches from Berlin and from Petrograd. The results, so far, while the outcome of the battle is still in doubt, all favor the Russians, and they are now threatening to outflank von Bothmer.

TWO WOMEN BURNED TO DEATH IN SAN FRANCISCO
APARTMENT HOUSE FIRE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 5.—Two unidentified women were burned to death in a fire that swept through the Grand apartment house last night. A dozen other residents of the apartments were more or less seriously injured by jumping to the pavement to escape the flames that swept through the building with great speed. The police and the firemen announced after the fire was extinguished that they had reasons to believe it was the work of firebugs, and that an investigation was being conducted. One suspect was arrested later in the night.

REAL DEMOCRACY AND REAL UNITY
AMERICA'S NEED

Hughes Compares Historic Past With Present Day Conditions in Independence Speech

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BRIDGEHAMPTON, Conn., July 5.—Standing on the village green here yesterday, Charles Evans Hughes, Republican candidate for president, told the villagers that "America needs intelligent appreciation and understanding of the ideals of democracy, and a new sentiment of real unity."

He was the speaker at the Fourth of July ceremonies held under the direction of a village committee, and spoke without any attempt at oratory, but simply and direct.

Speaking of the present-day needs as compared with the problems of the forefathers he briefly outlined the differences in the conditions of today and those historic yesterday, when the Nation was born.

He declared that in the material success of the United States the people have neglected to keep alive that sympathy and understanding for real equality of political and commercial opportunity of which the fathers thought and for which they fought.

"What we need now," he declared, "is intelligent comprehension of the needs and aims and ideals of democracy. And back of that, and supporting it in action, we need a greater if not an entirely new sentiment of that unity without which no nation can become great, no nation can make its ideals and aspirations felt with effect and weight throughout the rest of the world."

"We know what the forefathers thought about democracy. They believed that what we needed in this country was a fair chance for each and every man to take advantage of the God-given right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

"They had seen for themselves in the old lands beyond the seas the meaning of the other forms of government—government by special interests and for special classes, and they had wanted of it. They battled against it and believed when they died that they had succeeded in driving it out of America. We, their sons and daughters, should see to it that they did not fight and die in vain. We should see that democracy means just what it is supposed to mean—a fair, equal chance for every man, according to his talents."

Why Tolerate Catarrh?

You have noticed, no doubt, that any cold aggravates nasal catarrh, and the flow of mucous amazes you that such objectionable matter could find lodgment in your head. To ignore this catarrh when the cold subsides is wrong because it continues to slowly injure the delicate linings of the nasal passages and clog them up.

To correct catarrh, cleanse the nostrils frequently with a solution of warm water and salt, insert vaseline on retiring, and take a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month. Scott's acts through the blood to feed the tissues, and contains soothing glycerine to check the inflammation and heal the sensitive membranes.

Scott's is pleasant to take. 15-20
